Singing Centering #188 Come, Come, Whoever You Are

Welcome and Announcements

Chalice Lighting by Martha Kirby Capo

Through the week this chalice abides, cupped and silent, Softly it gleams in a dimly lit room, complete unto itself.
Today, we come together as a community of faith, joyful and free, our individual energies combine to spark the flame of Truth.
May we each draw strength for the other, and, like the chalice, may we be bathed in the fire of commitment to social justice, equity, and peace.

Chalice Extinguishing

Our time together is finished
But our work is not done.
May our spirits be renewed
And our resolve strengthened
As we meet the challenges
Of the week to come.
This chalice flame is extinguished
Until we ignite it again
With the spark of our communion.

Postlude I Wish I Were In Love Again by Lorenz Hart and Richard Rogers

*After a few moments we will be ushered into our breakout rooms.
You are free to end your participation in the "meeting" whenever you want.*

Many thanks to today's worship team: Zoom team – Jon Montation, Ben Hunkins, Doug Rubio, Robin Collen; Musicians – Betsy Kepes and Mary Michalek; Pulpit Guest – Kathy Montan

Our Web of Connection: Click here to learn about the ways you can connect with each other. There are 5 types of circles:

- Connection Circles: informal, come if you can, just for socializing
- Interest Circles: gather socially with people who share a common interest or hobby
- Action Circles: groups who gather for a social justice cause
- Exploration Circles: a chance to learn more about a topic or theme
- Listening Circles: more structured program for those seeking spiritual development
